

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release | May 19, 2023

Contact: News Desk, (619) 667-1191

City Hosts 24th Annual Flag Day Parade

La Mesa salutes “Old Glory” with a fun, family-friendly parade

La Mesa, CA – Join the City of La Mesa at the annual Flag Day Parade on Saturday, June 3. The parade begins at 10:00 a.m., at the intersection of Memorial Dr, University Avenue and La Mesa Blvd. and heads west through the La Mesa Village to Acacia Avenue. The Grossmont High School Royal Blue Regiment and the Navy Junior ROTC Color Guard will lead the parade.

This year’s Grand Marshal is Carol Lockwood who was chosen to be honored based on her more than 50 years of services as an educator with the Grossmont Unified School District and involvement in numerous city projects, committees and programs.

The La Mesa Community Relations and Veterans Commission will be providing free ice cream bars at “The Lookout” at Legacy Park on the corner of La Mesa Blvd, 4th St, and Allison Ave, while supplies last.

Limited parking will be available in the Civic Center parking lot, located at Date Street across from the La Mesa Police station. The City encourages you to walk or take public transportation to this event.

In addition to donations from community members, the La Mesa Flag Day Parade is sponsored by EDCO, Sedona Auto Group and the La Mesa Village Association. For more information, contact mhowell@cityoflamesa.us or visit the City’s website. Everyone is invited to share in this free and fun event.

About the La Mesa Flag Day Parade:

When: Saturday, June 3, 2023 | 10 a.m.

What: Flag Day Parade

Where: La Mesa Village, along La Mesa Blvd., starting at University Ave. and Memorial Dr.

###